Burns Night Celebration

Friday 29th January 2010 at 7.30pm

£35 per person, includes a four course dinner and entertainment

Join us as we celebrate the birthday of Scotland's most loved bard. The evening includes all that is best from the north of the border: a traditional piper to escort the haggis, a delicious four course dinner with a Scottish flavour and dancing to an authentic ceilidh band.

Dress: lounge suit or kilt

Menu

Neeps and tatties topped with McSween's haggis and served with whisky sauce

Scotch broth

Roast Scottish beef with thyme and shallot gravy,
Chefs market vegetables and roast tatties

Honey and whisky syllabub, oat biscuit

Freshly brewed coffee with whisky truffles

Why not stay overnight?
